Tenzin Choeying, a young student of Central University of Tibetan Studies in Varanasi who set himself on fire for the cause of Tibet on 14th July, 2017.
On 22\textsuperscript{nd} July, 2017 Tibetan Women’s Association is deeply saddened by the demise of Tenzin Choeying, a young student of Central University of Tibetan Studies in Varanasi who set himself on fire for the cause of Tibet on 14th July, 2017. It is a great loss for the Tibetan people and his family.

We extend our heartfelt condolence to his parents and relatives.

May his soul rest in peace and reborn as a Tibetan.
On 23\textsuperscript{rd} July Tibetan Women’s Association Vice President Tsering Dolma and Public Relation Officer Kalsang Youdon paid homage to late Pawo Tenzin Choeying on behalf of the Association and extended our heartfelt condolence to the parents and relatives.

TWA also would like to thank to all the Tibetans in Delhi and also our Indian friends who paid visit to late Pawo Tenzin Choeying while he was in the hospital and their presence even at Majnu-ka-Tilla till the last.
On 25th July, 2017 Tibetan Women’s Association Vice-President Tsering Dolma and Public Relation’s Officer Kalsang Youdon paid respect on behalf of TWA to the mortal remains of Pawo Tenzin Choeying before it left for Dharamsala from Delhi for the general public to pay their last respect and for cremation.