The chart does not include all the self immolation happened outside Tibet

Produced by: Central Tibetan Women's Association

www.tibetanwomen.org

* 154 Tibetans have self-immolated in Tibet and China since February 27, 2009. A Rinpoche and his niece, died in a fire – according to information from the Tibetan government in exile and Woenser, this may have been a self-immolation that was later erroneously described as a house fire.

* 126 men, 28 women

* 122 of the 153 are known to have died following their protest

* 26 of the Tibetans who self-immolated were 18 or under

* 13 of the 153 were monks at Kirti monastery in Ngaba

* 11 of the 153 are former monks at Kirti monastery in Ngaba (It is currently not known who of the nine chose to disrobe, or were expelled from the monastery by government authorities)

*Two of the 153 were nuns from Mame Dechen Chokorling nunnery in Ngaba

*153 of the self-immolations have occurred since March 16, 2011

10 self-immolations by Tibetans have occurred in exile.
